

SANJAY SINGH

Enthusiastic and aspiring MERN (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js) Stack Developer, eager to embark on a dynamic career in web development. Armed with a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, along with exposure to modern frontend frameworks like React, I am passionate about creating engaging and user-friendly web applications. My goal is to leverage my academic knowledge and hands-on experience to contribute to the development of innovative digital solutions. With a keen interest in responsive design and a commitment to continuous learning, I am excited to collaborate with seasoned professionals and apply my skills to deliver intuitive and efficient frontend solutions.
